PARTICIPANTS WANTED FOR A STUDY ON SOCIAL STRESS
IN THE KHMER COMMUNITIES
IN NEW ENGLAND

If you are:

• a survivor of the Khmer Rouge genocide and between the ages of 30–69
• live in Lowell, Lynn or Revere, MA

YOU MAY BE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE STUDY!

The study, conducted by Dr. Leakhena Nou (Principal Investigator) at the Institute for Asian American Studies, University of Massachusetts Boston, is important for understanding how social stress affects first generation Khmer adult refugees in the United States.

To sign up or for more information, please contact Dr. Leakhena Nou by February 28, 2005 at 617-287-5651 or leakhena.nou@umb.edu.